Dear Jeremy,

After reading your latest email to me, I thought I should be certain that I understand your position. It appears as though you are unwilling to take down your website and other materials you have posted concerning the Church on the internet, are unwilling to stop trying to raise money for your endeavors regarding the Church, and are rejecting my proposal to have a private and confidential written dialogue about your concerns with Church history and doctrine. Is my understanding correct?

Sincerely,
President Ivins
